

3

ber projecting outwardly in all directions from the arm extremity to which it is attached.

2. The clamp of claim 1 in which the central clamping zone is elongated and extends laterally with respect to the pair of arms.

References Cited by the Examiner

UNITED STATES PATENTS

604,079	5/98	Record	81—15
1,007,824	11/11	Trosper	81—424 X
2,477,689	8/49	Feinbloom	81—15

4

2,645,013	7/53	Mathison	32—63
2,695,616	11/54	Hansell	128—346
2,698,483	1/55	Berkowitz	81—424 X

OTHER REFERENCES

5 KNY-Scheerer Co. Catalog, copyright 1914, page 2041 relied upon (Item B/1317).

Ann. Surgery 1933, article entitled "An Inter-Ringed Clamp," pages 794-796.

10 RICHARD A. GAUDET, Primary Examiner.

JORDAN FRANKLIN, Examiner.